

February 20, 1969

Oscar H. Erdmann

Oscar H. Erdmann, 74, of 1223 10th Ave. SE, Aberdeen, died Saturday evening at St. Luke's Hospital.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Tuesday, Feb. 18, at Bethlehem Lutheran Church with the Rev. Glenn Midthun officiating. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Honorary pall bearers were Vernon Atkinson, Gottlieb Brockel, John Shillingstad, Jack Nissen, Merle Dahme, Victor Schwandt, William Beckers and Laurence Malsom.

The active pall bearers were Ronald Feickert, Edward Kranzler, Terry Siedschlaw, Robert Schuelke, Ralph Breitreutz and Ora Schuelke.

Soloist was Mrs. R. W. Meade and organist, Merritt Johnson.

Mr. Erdmann was born Aug. 15, 1894, near Stratford. He was a painter and had lived in Aberdeen since 1935. He married Anna Fischer at Leola on Dec. 12, 1943. He was a member of the Moose, Elks and Eagles lodges.

Survivors include his widow; two brothers, Deno Erdmann, Stratford, and John Erdmann, Anaheim, Calif.; and one sister, Mrs. Art (Mathilda) Schuelke, Groton. One brother preceded him in death.